

Vancouver

An upper-crust tour of shops, art and food combined with a cheap scoop and the best motel.

By Coleen Nemtin

Checking In

■ Listel Vancouver

Instead of waking up to a bare wall—or worse, one adorned with a generic painting of the doctor-office variety—you could face the bold and sexy Pomegranate #9 by Vancouver's Carmelo Sortino in a Gallery Floor room. The suites of Listel's fourth and fifth floors are curated by Buschlen Mowat Fine Arts with work from local and international artists. If you get attached to any of the art, buy it and take it home. Rates: Gallery Rooms from $300 (summer), from $160 off-season. Standard rooms from $240; off-season from $130. 800-663-5491.

■ The Rosellen Suites at Stanley Park

Expo 86 gave birth to the Rosellen Suites and the local film industry has kept it thriving. Originally an

